               G<sup>5</sup>
                                                 G<sup>5</sup>
Lord You're leadin' me
                                       with a cloud by day,
           G<sup>5</sup>
                                       the glow of a burning flame
and then in the night
                                                                                                             G<sup>5</sup>

              C<sup>2</sup>/G
And ev'ry—where I go I see You
                                                                And ev'ry—where I go I see You
           G^5
                                                   G^5
                                      and You wash it clean
And You take my hand,
              G^5
I know the promised land is light years a—head of me
                                                                                                             G^5

                                                                                G^5
And ev'ry—where I go I see You
                                                                And ev'ry—where I go I see You
                                                C2/G
                                                                                                             G<sup>5</sup>
                                                                And ev'ry—where I go I see You
And ev'ry—where I go I see You
           G<sup>5</sup>
                                                   G<sup>5</sup>
And the eagle flies
                                       And the rivers run
        G<sup>5</sup>
I look through the night
                                       and I can see the risin' sun
                                                                                                             G^5

              C<sup>2</sup>/G
And ev'ry—where I go I see You
                                                                And ev'ry—where I go I see You

And ev'ry—where I go I see You
                                                                                        Lord, I see You

                                                  G^5
                                       and the flowers fall
Well the grass will die

                                                       G<sup>5</sup>
